

(Hartford) - Today Congressman John B. Larson announced the re-hiring of Edmund Skowronek, who will return to the first district office to assume the role of Press Secretary following the departure of Chris Licata. Licata served as Larson's Communications Director since March of 2011. A native of the NYC-area, Licata recently accepted a position with the NYC-based public relations firm, Sunshine Sachs and Associates.

"Ed has proven to be a valuable resource to both the district and Washington offices," said Larson. "His professionalism and work ethic will be assets as he continues to serve the first district."

"I want to express my gratitude to Congressman Larson and his staff for giving me the opportunity to return to the district office," said Edmund Skowronek. "I am honored to take on this new role and continue working for the people living in the district I grew up in."

Earlier this year Skowronek held the role of District Communications for the Office of Congressman Larson, and has worked in government affairs in Connecticut since 2011. A lifetime resident of Connecticut, he earned his Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Southern Connecticut State University.

###